AUGUST 7-8, 2023

How to Teach Children with Special Meeds (and Why All Kids Learn Better This Way)

- 1. Frequency Matters.
 - 1-2 times per day.
 - It's not how hard you push, but how often.
 - Psalm 1:2
- 2. Move Slowly.
- 3. Combine physical and mental movements.
- 4. Be consistent.
- 5. Help your child stay motivated by giving positive encouragement.
 - Proverbs 16:21
 - Proverbs 31:26
- 6. Do hard things before you're too tired.
- 7. Realize that it takes time to grow new neurons.
- 8. Provide good food and good sleep.
