

Writing Prompts Week 1

1. Pick a character in the Scriptures and describe his or her day. What are some of his or her struggles, joys, and frustrations?
2. You are on the ark with Noah. Describe the living conditions and who you are with.
3. Today I...
4. 1 Corinthians 16:14 (NIV) says, "Do everything in love." How is this verse difficult to do?
5. What special talent has YHWH given you? How could you use this talent to serve YHWH when you are 25 years old? How could you use this talent to serve YHWH this year?

Writing Prompts Week 2

1. Write a funny story problem that uses something you've recently learned in math. (Make sure you can solve the problem.)
2. Think of a book you've been reading lately. Which character in the book would you most like to have as a friend. Why?
3. On the first day of this week, I...
4. 1 Peter 4:9 (NKJV) says, "Be hospitable to one another without grumbling." How is this verse difficult to do?
5. Which room in your house is your favorite? Why do you like it so much? Is there anything you wish you could change about it?

Writing Prompts Week 3

1. Look at your face in the mirror for a few minutes. Try to describe what you saw.
2. Look at one of your parent's or grandparent's faces for a few minutes. Describe what you saw, and tell how it is similar to your face.
3. When I was five years old, I...
4. Hebrews 11:3 (NKJV) says, "By faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that the things which are seen were not made of things which are visible." Explain this verse to a young child.
5. Think of words that rhyme with pink, blue, and box. Write a silly poem that uses these words.
